LIGHTNING FIRES TEMPORARY MEDICAL CLINIC OPENS

The Santa Cruz County Emergency Operations Center is pleased to announce the opening of a temporary medical clinic in conjunction with the California Emergency Medical Services Authority.

Located at the Santa Cruz County Fairgrounds in Watsonville, the clinic is being established to meet a range of medical needs for those impacted by the Lightning Complex Fires. Evacuees may access a range of medical services including pharmaceutical services, with physicians on-site to assist patients throughout the day.

For emergency medical needs, please call 911 or visit an emergency room. For information and additional sheltering resources, go to www.santacruzcounty.us/FireResources.aspx. Information available in English or Spanish.

For more on the California Emergency Medical Services Authority, see <https://ems.ca.gov>.
