COUNTY TO HOST FIRST CAREER FAIR

The County of Santa Cruz is pleased to invite members of the public to the first-ever Santa Cruz County Career Fair, to be held May 22nd.

Residents of all skill levels will be able to discuss potential opportunities with representatives from more than twenty County departments, including Animal Services, Auditor-Controller-Treasurer-Tax Collector, District Attorney, General Services, Health Services and Human Services, Parks and Recreation, Public Works, Sheriff-Coroner and many more.

The County's second-largest employer, Santa Cruz County employs local residents in a wide variety of roles, and offers competitive pay and benefits. Attendees may also receive resume writing help, attend free professional workshops and more.

Tacos will be available to purchase from El Chuy Taco Truck.
