EVACUATION WARNING Release Date March 9, 2023 12:00pm

Heavy rains and run off are expected starting Thursday afternoon through Friday evening. Residents in low lying areas should be prepared to evacuate and move to higher ground. If possible, consider moving prior to the start of the weather system. The Sheriff's Office is issuing an evacuation warning for the following zones in the unincorporated areas:

FEL-E008, FEL-E012, CRZ-E081

CTL-E014-B, E015-B, E018-A, E019-B

CTL-E051-B, CTL-E050-B

PAJ-E015-B, E024-B, E027-B, E026, E028

These areas have been identified as the highest threat to flood, however flooding could take place in areas outside of these identified zones. The Sheriff's Office recommends residents remain mindful of their surroundings and their proximity to potentially flooded areas.

Residents may look up their evacuation zones at community.zonehaven.com

The County Emergency Operations Center has been activated to monitor further impacts from the storm, including localized flooding and road impacts. Road closures can be monitored at: <https://sccroadclosure.org/>
