DATA DICTIONARY

December, 2008

777 W & I

The California Welfare and Institutions Code that outlines a petition filed in juvenile court alleging that a minor violated their court ordered probation terms. Also commonly used as a booking code for “adjudicated” and “non-adjudicated” youth in Santa Cruz County for minors placed into juvenile hall for probation violations, warrants, court remands or violations of home supervision or electronic monitoring.

NOTE: Santa Cruz County Probation currently uses 777 W&I for bench warrants; however this is not the W&I code definition of warrants.
