Voters – In person voting begins on May 28

The Santa Cruz County Clerk/Registrar of Voters is pleased to announce the opening of in-person voting centers throughout Santa Cruz County. Voters may cast ballots for the June 7, 2022 Primary Election at any of the following locations. For more information, visit www.votescount.us.

Services will include:

- obtaining a replacement ballot - you do not need to bring in the ballot we mailed you. We can void the previously issued ballot when you come in to vote.
- voting and turning in the ballot mailed to you,
- using the Tablet to vote on an accessible ballot or a ballot in Spanish, and
- registering and voting on the same day.

All locations will adhere to public safety protocols including wearing masks, disinfecting services, using hand sanitizer, keeping physical distances, and washing hands frequently. We will also provide clear guard protections to separate people.

Once a location opens for voting, it will remain open through Election Day, June 7, 2022, for the following hours each day:

Monday through Friday, 8am to 5pm

Saturday, 9am to 5pm

Sunday, 9am to 5pm

Election Day, Tuesday, June 7, 2022, 7am to 8pm

Locations are subject to change. Check back here before you go!
