Commissioner Kebebew asked about the possibility of translation of future meetings held in Watsonville.

Commissioner Kumar announced that she is resigning from the Commission effective tomorrow. Chair Druley expressed her gratitude for Commissioner Kumar's contributions to the Commission including her participation on the Juvenile Hall inspection subcommittee.

Commissioner Rodriguez announced that Luna Y Sol is putting on a National Night Out event and needs volunteers. She also invited everyone to participate and said that she would send a flyer about the event to the Commission.

Commissioner Kebebew talked about a meeting he participated in this week focused on developmental assets. They will be holding an event on August 24th that Commissioners are invited to attend. Jasmine Najera said that the effort was launched by the City of Watsonville to help align services in Watsonville.

Chair Druley announced that signed versions of the "Commissioner Agreements" were lost. She distributed new copies and asked commissioners to sign and return them. She also announced that the Commission will hold its retreat on its regular meeting date on October 12th.

Chair Druley talked about zoom meeting she had with Judge Lucero /OYCR regarding SB 823. The call was to bring together all of the juvenile justice commissions in the state to introduce the goals of OYCR and the important role that they think JJsCs have in the implementation of SB823 in their respective counties.

V. MONTHLY STATISTICAL INFORMATION FROM PROBATION/JUVENILE HALL (ATTACHMENTS Accept and File):

1. Grievances & Incidents reports

Assistant Chief Thompson reported that a youth had to be moved to Dominican on a 5150 hold. Asked if there were any questions about the statistical report. Commissioner Kumar asked for more details on the youth and the event. Assistant Chief Thompson reported that the youth was attempting to self-harm.

Commissioner Kumar reported that there were 8 grievances last month. 7 of 8 were from 1 youth. Also a few were related to the same teacher that came up in past grievances. 1 was about a youth having extra items above what were allowed. 1 about the teacher and the youth feeling the teacher takes out their bad mood on the youth. Staff reported that they talked to the teacher about this. 1 was about lost evenings as a consequence for some physical damage to the walls of the cell that a youth was in. Another grievance was related to a youth feeling that the teacher wasn't teaching classes. 2 youth made a grievance about this. In one of those instances a yoga class was canceled which led to an improvisation by the teacher. Another grievance from the same youth asserted that the teacher only taught class when they were being recorded. Another grievance related to the teacher telling them they had to do work in the class even though they had graduated from school. The last grievance was about a youth not feeling good and requesting to skip PE.

Assistant Chief Thompson reported that the supervisor of the teacher subject to the grievances is now directly involved and coaching the teacher and that SCCOE is bringing in a co-teacher for the summer.

Commissioner Ruiz highlighted that there were no firearm bookings in June. Went on to ask about average booking days between boys and girls. Staff reported that this can happen periodically and is related to placement failures. Also pointed out that there are a small number of girls in custody. The small N means that events related to girls can dramatically impact statistics in the report.

Commissioner Ruiz asked for data on the income of youth. Assistant Chief Thompson reported that they do not track income but made some suggestions for ways commissioners could approximate that information using zip codes as a proxy indicator. Also warned that income level doesn't always correlate to resources available to youth. Commissioner Ruiz indicated an interest in the relationship between income and time on probation. Assistant Chief Thompson suggested that this is possibly something that could be brought up with the Public Defender's office. More discussion ensued between staff and commissioners about potential challenges to collect certain data on status from defense attorney and other data elements that are reliable and valid.

Chair Druley asked if CASA or Commissioners could go in the van when it goes to Sonoma. Assistant Chief Thompson said no. She said that they would look into it again, but due to how insurance is set up and the grant that is funding the van, it will likely not be allowed.

Chair Druley also thanked staff for meeting with her to share how the commission can work more collaboratively with Probation staff, with an emphasis on delinquency prevention.

Assistant Chief Thompson reported on the top 5 needs of youth as identified in the JAIS. These were: peer relationships, social adequacy, physical safety, vocational needs, academic performance.

Commissioner Kebebew asked if Commissioners could see the trend over time. Assistant Chief Thompson said she would work with staff to go back and look and report back.

1. Establish future meeting locations and times.

Motion: Kebebew; Second: Rice

Establish 50% of meetings in Watsonville and change the start time of all meetings to 6:00 p.m. Beginning September 2023.

Motion Passed

Unanimously

Chair Druley explained the questions before the Commission. Commissioner Kebebew voiced support for holding at least half of the Commission's meetings in Watsonville because most of the youth in the Juvenile Justice system are from South County. Commissioner Ruiz voiced strong support. Commissioner Kumar pointed out that we've never seen a family grievance, suggesting that families can't voice concerns and the need to create a space for families to address concerns with the Commission. She also suggested changing the time of the meeting due to traffic concerns. Commissioner Johnson asked if we would expect to have families participate. Discussion ensued. Commissioner Rodriguez suggested that the earliest the meeting should start is 6:00 p.m. Guest Najera suggested that information should be handed out to parents at JH. Questions were raised if it is the Commission's purview to receive complaints/grievances from families. More discussion ensued about the appropriate way to engage with families. Other Commissioners emphasized the importance of managing expectations of how families will be able to engage with the commission.

VII. INFORMATION ITEMS:

1. SB823: Report on the visit to Rancho Cielo

Report in the packet.

2. Juvenile Hall Assessment: Piloting new Anne E. Casey Detention Assessment format and assessment team.

Commissioner Druley talked about her work to get administrative support from the County for the Commission. There is a meeting tomorrow with Nicole Coburn, Fernando and Sasha from Superior Court on this subject.

Commissioner Gonzales requested that the Commission receive the meeting packets earlier than they are currently received. Staff indicated that the reports included in the packet are what is making it take longer for the packet to be distributed. Commissioner Brook asked for an update on number of youth at Sonoma. Juvenile Division Director Flores reported that 4 youth are currently at Sonoma and 1 left at DJJ.

Commissioner Kumar reported on her review of grievance and incident reports from the Hall. 3 grievances. 2 by the same youth. First involved youth expressing confusion about not getting PE credits. JH staff and teachers worked with the youth to resolve the issue. Commissioner Kumar was confused about whether the plan put in place was enough for them to graduate from high school.

2 additional grievances from one youth focused on a particular teacher indicating that they felt they were being picked on and not treated equally. Staff reported that they talked to the teacher who was receptive to the feedback. The second complaint was that the teacher wasn't providing a teaching plan and would play an audio book. Staff followed up with the teacher and her supervisor and stressed that teachers should be present and available to youth. Staff also met with the student and praised them for advocating for themselves.

Commissioner Diaz asked if there are evaluations of the teachers providing services. Assistant Chief Thompson responded that the County Office of Education runs the school and evaluates their own staff. Chair Druley also noted that review of programming is a component of the annual Juvenile Hall inspection. Commissioner Diaz indicated an interest in receiving more information about the teacher evaluations and follow-up with COE staff.

Commissioner Brook asked Division Director Flores about grievances that youth at Sonoma have and if Santa Cruz County staff are aware of those grievances. Division Director Flores reported that they are not. But he did report that the probation officers check in with the youth and should know about any issues the youth have.

Commissioner Kumar asked if the Commission has access to grievance reports from the Sonoma facility. The Commission discussed this and agreed it warranted further exploration. Staff emphasized that the individual POs may already be aware of issues. The Commission and staff further discussed potential challenges as new youth integrate into the Sonoma facility.

Division Director Flores proceeded to review the Monthly Data Blast with the Commission to increase understanding of the report, its acronyms and terms. Staff and Commissioners went on to discuss elements of the report, data points that staff are most attuned to and generally what staff are focused on in the interest of youth well-being.

Athena, Kayla, Sandra, Bev attended. Eli was out of town

Athena and Bev shared about the tour of Rancho Cielo in Salinas. RC changed their focus three years ago to look at their program with an academic vision. RC is a charter high school who take youth from ages 14 - 25 if they have not graduated from high school. Besides the general education piece, they also have vocational training in Automotive, Construction, Ag, and Culinary. They also have incentive programs including bike repair, beekeeping, dog training and landscape design. They have approximately 170 students all who are transported to RC by RC staff. RC has a brand-new building that houses the classrooms and workshops. They do have housing on the property; however, they are currently not housing youth. They hope to have temporary housing for youth in the future. According to staff they have a couple of STYF youth that attend school at RC.

Bev shared about the Forward Change project which determined that a four year degree provides a youth the best possible outcomes following incarceration. Bev will forward the presentation when it becomes available.

Attached are OYCR's stepping down model and best practices.

Bev shared that Cynthia met with Valerie, Jose and Sara regarding the JJDPC's focus and goals. Cynthia asked if this sub-committee could articulate their goals.

Following a lengthy discussion, we synthesized our three goals as a sub-committee:

- Tracking how our county is implementing SB 823. Specifically, how are we addressing the main components of SB 823 in keeping our youth in our community and providing rehabilitation which encompasses healing and transformation. Specifically, exploring what are the barriers keeping our youth from being closer to their community? What counties have we or are we looking at for our STYF youth?
- Explore step-down options for our STYF youth. As youth are released from STYF what is the continuum of care looking like? Already one youth will be released in September and is a step-down being offered to him.
- Continue to oversee the facility's contracted by our county for our secure tract youth. This would include how the youth are faring in the Sonoma Facility; current and future programming Sonoma or other facilities contracted by the county; how the DJJ youth are transitioning; how many families have taken advantage of the transportation van; how many youth have CASA advocates; reviewing grievances

SB 823 sub-committee recognizes the importance of keeping current on all the issues and best practices surrounding the implementation of SB 823 to assure positive outcomes for our youth.

The committee agreed we will submit questions to probation staff prior to each meeting in our effort to meet our goals.
